

2018 Satchwell Enquiry Panelist Bios

The National Council (NC) of Equal Education (EE) established an independent enquiry to investigate and make findings on serious allegations, including sexual harassment and intimidation, raised in the Mail & Guardian on 18 May 2018 against former leaders of the organisation.

The members of the independent Panel that were appointed:

Kathleen Satchwell, the Chair, was a prominent human rights attorney in the 1990s, and appointed as a judge by President Nelson Mandela in 1996. She gave evidence before the Truth and Reconciliation Commission on the role of the legal system in contributing to the violations of human rights in South Africa under apartheid.

Professor Rashida Manjoo is an academic based at the University of Cape Town. She was the United Nations' Special Rapporteur on Violence Against Women between 2009 and 2015. She served as the Parliamentary Commissioner on South Africa's Commission on Gender Equality; the Steering Committee of the Initiative for Strategic Litigation; and is also a member of the International Advisory Council of the Women's Initiative for Gender Justice.

Dr Malose Langa is an academic at Wits University. His research interests include risk-taking behaviours among the youth and their role in politics, trauma of collective violence and the psychology of men (masculinity) in post-apartheid South Africa. Dr Langa has served as a member of the Medical Research Council of South Africa; and he is a member of the the Institutional Reconciliation and Transformation Commission (IRTC), appointed by a multi-stakeholder Steering Committee of the University of Cape Town (UCT) after violent student protests
