WANT TO VOLUNTEER AT A DYNAMIC YOUTH LED ORGANISATION?

Equal Education National Organising in KwaZulu-Natal (Nqutu) is calling for applications 2020 volunteer facilitators!

We are looking for passionate young activists who are ready to transform the state of our schools and work with high-school learners in the 12 schools we are currently organised in eNqutu. This opportunity is designed for post-school (matric) youth to develop leadership, facilitation, community organizing and communication skills. This experience will provide you with essential skills and experience in a professional setting.

This is a volunteer programme, there will be no remuneration or incentive for participating in the programme.

WHAT MAKES A GREAT FACILITATOR AT EE?

- Having good facilitation and communication skills, your role will include delivering educational content in school meetings, Leadership Committee meetings and youth groups.
- Ability to mobilize people, you will be required to mobilize and engage communities of parents, learners, having strong community-based connections would be a strong advantage.
- Be committed, EE volunteer facilitators will be required to attend weekly team meetings and other activities or actions.
- Have basic administration skills including but not limited to keeping up-to-date registers, submitting petty cash paperwork, etc.
- Be curious, we are looking for young people who are curious about their country and the systems that make it function. If we don't know what's wrong, we can't change it!
- Be a team player, as a member of the team you will be asked to participate in a number of events and activities, these could include seminars, pickets, marches and community meetings. Play a very crucial role in our campaign work.
- We encourage an environment of learning and reading, all facilitators will be asked to participate in training and development workshops. We want to see you grow!
- Advocacy is at the core of our work, you may be required to represent EE in public platforms,

HOW OFTEN WILL WE NEED YOU?

Every Tuesday to Friday from 10:00 to 16:00

At times you will be required to come on Saturdays from 10:00 to 15:00

Every other day where facilitators will be notified of special events they have to attend and/or prepare for.
